6.	Tr.T8/863/2015, Dt.02-04-2015.	Sri T. Raja Singh Lodh, M.L.A., Goshamahal Assembly-65, 13-1-1139/A, Baba Balakdas Mutt, Upper Dhoolpet, Hyderabad – 006.	-	The Begum Bazar Fish Market located in the commercial area which is included with many wholesale Kirana Shops. The roads are narrow and insufficient for traffic movement. Apart from above the visitors to this market are also heavy. Due to non availability of parking space many vehicles are being parked on the roads causing obstruction to the free flow of traffic. In additions to this the footpaths are occupied by the shop keepers, and as such the pedestrians are forced to walk on the congested roads. Therefore, the Inspector of Police, Tr.PS Goshamahal has booked following cases against the footpath encroachments at Begum Bazar Fish Market and Feelkhana area with effect from 01-02-2015 to 31-03-2015. No Parking cases – 104. Crane cases (MV Act & Lifting) – 263. 39(b) CP Act cases – 121. Further, it is to inform that the Inspector of Police, Tr.PS Nampally also booked following cases against the illegal encroachments at EK Minar Mosque.	02-04-2015

				The Inspector of Police, Tr.PS Nampally along with GHMC officials have conducted a special drive against encroachments on 29-12-2014 and removed encroachments. A special drive was conducted on 10-02-2015 and booked 24 cases under 39(b) CP Act, 241 cases on vehicles which were transporting furniture U/s 190(2) & 122 of MV Act and 255 e-Challan cases. Through it is out of place it is sincerely submitted that removal of encroachments is the subject matter of GHMC and the allegation that Traffic Police is having hand in glove with the encroachments is false, baseless and far from truth. However we will continue to make efforts for the removal of encroachments in co-ordination with GHMC and will strive for ensuring free flow of traffic.

			Why is insurance mandatory for two wheelers and not for riders?	As per section 196 of the Motor Vehicle Act-1988, insurance is compulsory. Driving uninsured vehicle. Whoever drives a motor vehicle or causes or allows a motor vehicle to be driven in contravention of the provisions of section 145 shall be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both. Some recent research showed that around 50% of vehicles are not insured (even though it is mandatory). Third party Insurance: In this insurance contract, the buyer of the vehicles and the Policy made by him is always considered as a first party. The second party will be an insurance company. A third party is a person or asset, which is not owned by owner of the vehicle and if damaged due to an accident while riding a vehicle. This insurance will not cover the first party or the vehicle of first party. It covers the Legal liability for the damage caused by the first party to a third party like bodily injury, death or damage to third party property.
