That what is the idea behind directing the traffic violators to pay the amount through E-seva by detaining the vehicle?	To avoid unnecessary trouble to the violators of the MV Act to pay the penalty amount in cash on the spot, a new system has been adopted to pay the penalty amount through E-seva or Mee-seva or AP Online and the bank. The Police has got power to detain the vehicles U/S 207 of MV Act for the contravention mentioned in it.			11-05-2016.
			If your Department detains a vehicle, is your Department responsible for any damage that is caused to the vehicle during the temporary custody till the E-challan amount is paid?	No damage will be caused to the vehicles detained during the custody of the Police. Question of causing damage to the vehicles in the custody of the Police will not arise.
			Do the Traffic Police directly write away the Challans or do they have patience to peruse the documents, in this case I showed by License to the Sub-Inspector G.S. Daniel but the straight away issued the Challan that too while I was travelling to the High Court urgently.	In your case neither produced the license nor showed any evidence in proof of having driving license. Since you have failed to produce the license the Police has got power to seize it U/s 207 of MV Act. Instantly a challan will not be issued. Sufficient time will be given to show the relevant documents.
			How many challans does traffic Inspector,	Whenever there is any contravention, challan will be issued

			G.S. Daniel write everyday?	to the violators. There is no any fixed number of challans is to be issued.
			On this particular day i.e. 15-03-2016 how many challans are issued and how many are paid through e-seva.	As per records of Traffic Police Station Sultan Bazar (423) challans were issued.
			What is the time span for payment of challan through e-seva/online.	For spot challan seven days time span for payment and if payment should be made immediately through E-seva, Mee-seva, Banking or AP online, the detained vehicle will be released.
			I am hereby enclosing a photo taken by me during the temporary detention of my vehicle and I have noticed Inspector G.S.Daniel letting free many persons and the photo will reveal everything.	It is not correct to say that G.S. Daniel, Sub-Inspector of Police allowed the vehicles let free though contravened. No Sub-Inspector of Police will stop all the vehicles which are passing on the road. Those who are not wearing helmets such vehicle riders will be stopped and they will be issued challans.
			Does G.S. Daniel Traffic Inspector have discretion to let off violators as seen from photo I have enclosed.	No such discretion to let off persons who contravened traffic rules, if they are identified.

			We see a lot of G.H.M.C garbage picking dump trucks & OTHER Govt. vehicles with no number plates to their vehicles. Is this allowed? If no, has any notice or communication been sent to GHMC commissioner in this regard? (Please share if so ) Our worry as citizens is if this truck hits someone and runs away how will we recognize who it was even through CCTV? And we will not be able to hold any one accountable for the crime.	No vehicle whether a private/govt. is allowed without number plates. So far it has not come to the notice of the traffic authorities, in this regard. Anyhow, the same will be brought to the notice of GHMC Commissioner. If anybody runs a vehicle without number plate is an offence under the M.V. Act and it will be dealt as per the law.

			Do you have no authority for making it mandatory for citizens to ensure they have the side view mirrors bike & cars? As it is a major element the lack of which leads to an irresponsible turns by the vehicle riders leading to accidents. (The mirrors are a global standard for a reason no matter how funky the vehicle is)	The Hyderabad Traffic Police has no authority to insist the vehicle owners to have side view mirrors for them.
			We see the cars showrooms (yellow Plates) release the vehicle without side view mirror on the cars, taking it for the owner to choose for it or not. Do you have any authority to make it a mandatory requirement for selling of the cars as the passengers life is at risk for such misses?	The subject matter is not pertains to Hyderabad Traffic Police.
